- Concerns Raised by Parents

- Some low graders are receiving negative comments from peers.
- A few students felt disheartened about not being able to join the Europe Trip.
  Suggestion: Such students should be counselled by the school counsellor.
- Action Points:
  - Address bullying concerns through parent discussions and counselling.
  - Provide emotional counselling support for Std. X students.
    Deepali Ma'am's Suggestion: Parents should openly discuss issues related to bullying, as addressing them is vital for students' wellbeing.

- POCSO Awareness by Geeta K.(School Counsellor)
- Topic: Puberty and Adolescence Sessions
- Puberty Session (Mother & Daughter) – conducted successfully.
- Adolescence Session (Father & Son) – to be conducted shortly.
- Parent Query: Can mothers attend the boys' puberty session?
  Response (Geeta K.): Yes, mothers can attend.

- Parent Suggestion: Organize an alternative destination to encourage better participation. Very few students have registered for the picnic
- Principal Ma'am's Response: The matter will be reviewed and decided accordingly.

- Other suggestions and responses
- A parent suggested arranging separate health sessions for teachers and students.
  Response (Suja Ma'am): The proposal will be reviewed and planned accordingly.

Conclusion

- The meeting concluded at 11:25 a.m. with a formal vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all members for their active participation and valuable suggestions.
